

Arts Advocacy Training Workshop

Tuesday, November 17, 2009

10:00am - 12:00noon

at the historic Stimson-Green Mansion 1204 Minor Avenue, Seattle, Washington 98101

Gain tools and information to become a better arts advocate in local, regional, state and federal realms and take away the WSAA Arts Advocacy Toolkit.

Share valuable time with elected officials and hear their thoughts on arts advocacy

Mary Conway, Office of U.S. Senator Patty Murray

Patrick Hogan, Office of U.S. Representative Jay Inslee

David O. Loud, Office of U.S. Representative Jim McDermott

Senator Fred Jarrett

Speaker of House Frank Chopp

Representative Christine Rolfes

Terra Rose, Legislative Assistant for Representative Phyllis Gutierrez Kenny

Pat Lantz, former Washington State Representative

Louise Miller, former Washington State Representative

Mike McGinn, Seattle Mayoral Candidate

Richard Conlin, Seattle City Council President

Jan Drago, Seattle City Councilmember

Nick Licata, Seattle City Councilmember

Also hear from guest speakers

Susie Tracy, Washington State Arts Alliance Lobbyist in Olympia

D. David Brown, Executive Director, Pacific Northwest Ballet, WSAA President

Mark Gerth, Communications Manager, Washington State Arts Commission

Jim Kelly, Executive Director, 4Culture

Michael Killoren, Executive Director, Seattle's Office of Arts & Cultural Affairs

Josh LaBelle, Executive Director, Seattle Theatre Group, WSAA Board Member

Mary Langholz, Executive Director, Washington State Arts Alliance

FREE for Washington State Arts Alliance Members

$10 for Non-members in advance by check; or $15 at the door

REGISTER to attend by November 10, 2009

with name, phone & e-mail to kim@wsartsalliance.com

Optional $12 box lunch and post-event mansion tour

Pre-order lunch by November 10th. Please send a check for $12 to the Washington State Arts Alliance at 1204 Minor Ave, Seattle, WA 98101. Indicate turkey, ham, tuna or egg salad sandwich.

Bottled water and pastry are included with lunch.